

February 5, 2008

Contact: Scott Hirko, 517-372-0029 ext. 25, or shirko@mihumanities.org

The Great Michigan Read* exhibit in Niles through Feb. 11, Saginaw through Feb. 18

Exhibit featuring Hemingway's early years in Michigan and his Nick Adams Stories

(LANSING)---The Michigan Humanities Council (MHC) announces that two copies of the exhibit, Up North with the Hemingways, are currently on public display in Michigan: one is at the Niles District Library (6960 West Oakton St., Niles) now through February 11, 2008, and the other is at the Historical Society of Saginaw County and the Castle Museum (500 Federal Ave., Saginaw) now through February 18, 2008. The exhibit will visit 29 sites in the state of Michigan through July 7, 2008 (see below or log onto the website, www.greatmichiganread.org). The exhibit is part of The Great Michigan Read, launched in July by the Michigan Humanities Council to help address the decline in reading literature. In Niles, the public can visit the exhibit Mondays through Thursdays from 9 a.m. – 8 p.m.; and, this Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.; the library is closed on Sundays. For more information about the exhibit in Niles, contact 269-683-8545. Hours to view the exhibit in Saginaw are Tuesdays through Saturdays, 10 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.; and, Sundays, 1 p.m. – 4:30 p.m; the museum is closed on Mondays. For more information about the exhibit in Saginaw, contact 989-752-2861 or email info@castlemuseum.org.

The touring exhibit includes references to original artifacts about Ernest Hemingway's life and his writings that pertain to his time in Northern Michigan. There are four themes as a focus of each exhibit: Northern Michigan in the early 1900s, the Hemingway family, Ernest Hemingway, and The Nick Adams Stories. The Great Michigan Read touring exhibits were funded in part by the MHC and the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, and were created by the Clarke Historical Library at Central Michigan University and the Michigan Hemingway Society.

"The Michigan Humanities Council is pleased to reach a wider audience with The Great Michigan Read programs by making available a touring exhibit about The Nick Adams Stories and Ernest Hemingway," said Janice Fedewa, executive director of the Michigan Humanities Council.

"The Clarke Historical Library hopes the touring exhibits will help people explore and understand some of the complex themes in The Nick Adams Stories and how the stories relate to Hemingway's years in Michigan," stated Dr. Frank Boles, director of the Clarke Historical Library at Central Michigan University.

The MHC is the first organization to implement a program for an entire state to read one of Hemingway's works. To date, more than 180 organizations and more than 130 communities across the state are participating in

(more)

The Great Michigan Read. Reader's guides, bookmarks, posters, and other opportunities are available to participating cultural organizations. Additional activities include radio and television features, podcasts, speakers bureau, driving tours, a website resource (www.greatmichiganread.org), and grant programs to help engage communities in literature.

The Great Michigan Read Touring Exhibit Schedule

2007

September 7 - 24, 2007. Oscoda County Library, Mio.
September 21 – October 8, 2007. Colon Township Library, Colon.
September 28 - October 15, 2007. Munising School Public Library, Munising.
October 12 – 29, 2007. Michigan Story Festival/Clarke Historical Library, Mt. Pleasant.
October 19 – October 26, 2007. Durand Union Station, Durand.
October 29 - November 2, 2007. Baker College of Owosso, Owosso.
November 2 – 20, 2007. Midland County Historical Society, Midland.
November 9 – 26, 2007. Jake Menghini Historical Museum, Norway.
November 23 – December 10, 2007. Three Rivers Public Library, Three Rivers.
November 30 – December 17, 2007. Adrian Public Library, Adrian.
December 14 – 31, 2007. Cadillac Wexford Public Library, Cadillac
December 21, 2007 – Jan. 7, 2008. Traverse Area District Library, Traverse City.

2008

January 4 – 21, 2008. Standish Historical Depot, Standish.
January 11 – 28, 2008. Box Factory for the Arts, St. Joseph.
January 25 – February 11, 2008. Niles District Library, Niles.
February 1 – 18, 2008. Historical Society of Saginaw County (Castle Museum), Saginaw.
February 15 – March 3, 2008. Besser Museum for Northeast Michigan, Alpena.
February 22 – March 10, 2008. Calumet Public School Library, Calumet.
March 7 - 24, 2008. Charles Ransom District Library, Plainwell.
March 14 – 31, 2008. Peter White Public Library, Marquette.
March 28 – April 14, 2008. Plymouth Community Arts Council, Plymouth.
April 4- 21, 2008. Chippewa County Historical Society, Sault Ste. Marie.
April 18 – May 5, 2008. Library of Michigan, Lansing.
April 25 – May 12, 2008. Artworks (One Book: 15 Libraries), Big Rapids.
May 9 – 26, 2008. Ann Arbor Book Festival, Ann Arbor.
May 16 – June 2, 2008. Macomb Center for the Performing Arts, Clinton Township.
May 30 – June 16, 2008. Bay County Historical Society, Bay City.
June 6 – 23, 2008. Wolcott Mill Historic Center, Ray.
June 20 – July 7, 2008. Alfred P. Sloan Museum, Flint.

Additional information is available at www.greatmichiganread.org or by contacting the MHC at 517-372-7770. Up North with the Hemingways was made possible by Michigan Humanities Council, Clarke Historical Library at Central Michigan University, Michigan Hemingway Society, and Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs. The Michigan Humanities Council, founded in 1974, is a private, non-profit organization funded in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

#####