By signing this application, you acknowledge your responsibility to comply with the responsibilities listed above. Failure to do so will result in ineligibility to participate in future Council programs.

Responsibilities

Discussion kits must be used to facilitate group discussions of Arc of Justice in high school classrooms, libraries, and other non-profit organizations that are registered Great Michigan Read partners.

Organizations must provide discussion dates to Council in advance.

Organizations must administer questionnaires to discussion participants AND complete required evaluation forms. Failure to do so will result in ineligibility to participate in future Council programs.

Organizations may keep their copies of Arc of Justice for future use OR send them back to the Council for distribution to other organizations.

2. Briefly state how your organization will use the books, and what it hopes to accomplish by discussing Arc of Justice.
